

CENTER for
IRANIAN
DIASPORA STUDIES

Spring Events 2018

Center for Iranian Diaspora Studies at SFSU
presents:

February 17, 7 PM
Reception 6 PM

Beyond Iran: A Tribute to the Life & Legacy of Abbas Kiarostami

with Ahmad Kiarostami, son of the late filmmaker in conversation with Hossein Khosrowjeh, California College of the Arts

August Coppola Theatre, Fine Arts Bldg. 101, San Francisco State University
Co-Sponsored by the SFSU School of Cinema — Free and Open to the Public

March 7, 7 PM

Solmaz Sharif, Iranian Poet & Essayist

National Book Award Finalist for LOOK

Humanities 587, San Francisco State University
Co-Sponsored by the Poetry Center — Free and Open to the Public

March 10, 7 PM

A Celebration of Spring / Norooz 2018

Music with Mamak Khadem & DAO

Oakland Asian Cultural Center, 388 9th Street, Oakland CA
Tickets: mamakinsf.brownpapertickets.com
In Collaboration with Diaspora Arts Connection

March 15, 2 PM

Celebrating Norooz – First Day of Spring

Open House at the Center for Iranian Diaspora Studies

Humanities 503, San Francisco State University

April 30, 5 PM

Dr. Nahid Siamdoust, Yale University

Author of Soundtrack of the Revolution: The Politics of Music in Iran

Co-Sponsored by Center for Middle East Studies
340 Stephens Hall, UC Berkeley — NOTE: This event is not at SFSU
Free and Open to the Public